A Day In The Life Of The World

On this hot day in Cairo, Canadian Ambassador Herbert Norman entered a modern apartment building, rode up to the ninth floor, removed his watch and sun glasses and leaped to his death. Friends said it was overwork on the Suez crisis and a "feeling of renewed persecution" by a U. S. Senate subcommittee charging he was once a Communist.

Just outside Cairo, in a village of mud streets and mud houses at the foot of the pyramids, Ahmed Tousson Khattab's wife bore him a baby girl. Life expectancy: 33 years.

Khattab, who is 35 and wears a mustache, long green-striped robe, leather sandals and small white cap, works as a guide and interpreter. He earns two pounds ($5.60) on days he works. Business has been terrible lately because of the Suez dispute.

Paid $2.80 For Birth
Following custom, his 23-year-old wife, Zeinab, went to her mother's house to bear the child. A Bedouin midwife assisted for a fee equaling $2.80.

Of his five children, Khattab said in his fractured English: "I want them to be high classer than me. I want them to go to university."

(From Point Barrow, Alaska, Guy Okakok, Eskimo correspondent and The AP's northernmost news reporter: "Air Force boys made a mistake yesterday by taking two girls up to the camp. Both girls are under 20. One girl here is badly frozen, they took her to the hospital. Now she is pretty well taken care of. If those boys wanted to have a good time why can't they have it in the house where it is warm and comfortable. They learn their lesson again.")

Another Birth
Just a few miles from the Equator in the British protectorate of Uganda, rain and thunder came up over Lake Victoria. Nkamaliwa, a black African, sat before his mud and grass hut and frowned at the weather. The rains had begun in his wife, Katalina, and they had four miles to go to the government hospital in Kampala.

They rode off on his bicycle, he on the seat, she on the carrier, and repeatedly she warned him to avoid the muddy ruts. At the main road, he stopped a car, gave the bike to a friend and man and wife rode into town in style.

Hours later, Katalina bore her first child, a boy. Nkamaliwa grinned, jokingly proud in his official uniform of red tarboosh, khaki shirt, shorts and leather sandals. He had just returned from the Government Secondary School, where his job is "acting head sweeper."

COURT TERM IS ENDED AS JURY
GIVES DAMAGES

An Adams county jury Tuesday afternoon awarded Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Ray, Gettysburg R. 4, damages amounting to $316.65 in the action in trespass the Rays had brought against Layton Mason also of Gettysburg R. 4.

The case was the final one for trial in the April term of court and its disposition cleaned the docket for the current term.

The decision came at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, forty minutes after the jury had retired to the jury room to consider its verdict.

Accounts by witnesses concerning the exact site of the accident varied. The case resulted from an accident between a car driven by Mr. Mason and an auto operated by Mrs. Ray October 5, 1956, one mile north of here along the Harrisburg Rd.

Two Versions
Mrs. Ray and her son, Harold, 14, testified that the accident occurred when Mason, backing from the driveway at the Ruba Shriver Beauty Shop, backed across the center of the highway into the lane occupied by the south-bound Ray car.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason held that Mr. Mason had backed the car into the north-bound lane and then had started forward in its own lane when the Mason car was struck by Mrs. Ray's car which had crossed over the centerline into the north-bound lane of traffic. Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg R. 4, testified to the position of the cars as he saw them after the noise of the collision had attracted his attention. At that time the Ray car had gone off the west side of the road into a bank. The Mason car was on the north-bound lane of the highway some distance north of the driveway into Shriver's residence.

BLUE AND GRAY
BAND IN NEED OF
MORE MEMBERS

The Gettysburg Blue and Gray Band inactive for several months, issued a call for a rehearsal Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the engine house — with a special appeal for new members to help fill depleted ranks.

Band Manager George Olinger said the band's first engagement for the season is the Knights Templar parade here on Sunday afternoon. "We have a number of other parades and concert dates and we hope to present another series of concerts for the townfolk that have proved so popular in other summers," Olinger said. "We have the uniforms, 60 of them, and plenty of music but we need more musicians. A number of persons who have played with us in the past are no longer available. Some have gone away to college and others have left the community so we need new recruits for many positions in the band."

Thursday's rehearsal will initiate regular practices during the summer months, Olinger said. They will be held weekly or biweekly, as the members decide.

"Gettysburg has to have a citizens' band," Olinger said. "There are many community activities at which the people of the town and local organizations expect us to play. The town has been good to us and we hope to be able to continue to serve our community but we must have more musicians for the band. The band is open to anyone interested and able to play in it."

James H. Harness is secretary-treasurer of the band.

FULL BLOSSOMS
ARE EXPECTED
ON THURSDAY

Adams County's fabulous fruit belt is expected to be at its peak of blossom Thursday and officials of Apple Blossomtime announced today that orchards in the highest elevations will provide an impressive show of blossoms on Sunday.

Final arrangements are being completed for annual Blossom Sunday at South Mountain Fairgrounds, where a barbecue chicken dinner and numerous apple dishes will be served from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Volunteer guides will accompany and direct visitors to the areas in which blossoms predominate.

Pushed By Heat

A sudden burst of 90 degree temperatures last Friday and Saturday created the most unusual push of blossoms in years, growers report, causing blossoms to expend themselves in about five days instead of the usual 10-day period. The entire county is in bloom now, with cherries, apples and a few peaches presenting a breath-taking panorama of color.

Apple producers report today that York Imperial orchards, the last to bloom, will be at their peak Thursday or Friday regardless of weather conditions within the next 24 hours.

William M. Lott, blossom chairman, said the association expects some 60,000 people to visit the county on Sunday to accept the hospitality of growers and to enjoy the association's third annual Blossom Sunday.

May Day Greeted Around World
With Parades, Speeches, Crowds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nations on both sides of the Iron Curtain today greeted May Day — traditional labor holiday outside the United States — with the usual speeches, parades and political demonstrations.

In Moscow, the Kremlin appeared ready to make the celebration another call for peaceful East-West coexistence — coupled with a show of military might. For the past few days the skies over Moscow have been filled with jet fighters, bombers and transports going through their paces in preparation for the big parade.

No New Models Yet
No new plane models were sighted. But the Soviet government forbade Western diplomats and newsmen to take pictures of the parade, arousing speculation some new military equipment might be unveiled.

In Budapest, Red Premier Janos Kadar will make his first major public speech since Soviet tanks crushed satellite Hungary's bid for freedom last fall.

President Tito keynoted the Yugoslav celebrations with an announcement that the forthcoming meeting of his Communist party would pave the way for "abandonment of certain old concepts and methods of the world."

HERE IN APRIL;
WEATHER WARM

Extreme temperatures marked last month's weather in Gettysburg and although the highest April readings in 15 years occurred last month, the average temperatures were only 3.23 degrees above normal for the 30-day period.

Eight days of rain helped to re-establish April's reputation in that department. It was the first April in five years with more than normal rainfall. Exactly four inches of rain were measured at The Gettysburg Times weather station and that is 0.41 inches above normal.

The April surplus of rain brought the total for the first four months of the year to 11.15 inches and helped cut the 1957 shortage of rainfall here to 1.48 inches. A dry March that got only about half the normal amount of rainfall accounted for most of the shortage for 1957.

From 28 to 91
The temperature spread for last month extended from the low of 28 degrees on April 11 to a high of 91 degrees last Saturday and Sunday. There were five days last month when the mercury dropped below freezing. The average daily reading was 54.33 degrees which is 3.23 degrees above normal April weather here. The daily temperature spread last month was exactly 20 degrees with the average high at 64.33 degrees and the average low 44.33 degrees.

There were thundershowers on four days or nights last month and a barn nearby was burned by lightning. Hail was reported in nearby sections and strong winds were recorded on two days. Snow flurries were noted, too, but there was no measurable snow.

DISTRICTS FILE
OBJECTIONS IN COURT IN YORK

Two Adams County school districts, members of the Conewago School Jointure, Monday filed preliminary objections in York Common Pleas Court to claims of the three remaining jointure members that present school facilities in the jointure are "detrimental to health, welfare, safety and education of the children."

Admitting that the temporary school facilities being used by the jointure are "poor and inadequate," the districts of East Berlin and Conewago Independent note that the "facilities have been approved by the state department."

The two districts seek to restrain Abbottstown borough, Reading Twp. and Paradise Twp. from dissolving the jointure. Judge W. C. Shely will sit in York county court Thursday to hear further argument on the issue.

Argument Stalls Expansion
The Abbottstown, Reading and Paradise boards contend the other two districts have refused to accept the Adams County plan for a building program. Although the jointure has been in operation eight years, no building program has yet been launched because of controversy over sites.

East Berlin and Conewago districts claim in their reply that the jointure can readily repair "rain seepage and poor stair treads" existing in the one building. They denied the contention of the three districts that a building program is "impossible" under the present jointure system, although admitting that at present there is an impasse.

"The problems involved are clearly school problems which can and should be solved by the school districts and county boards involved," the districts of East Berlin and Conewago countered in answer to the complaint of the protestants.

ONE KILLED, 23 MEN INJURED IN EXPLOSION

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Eight workmen remained hospitalized today, two in reportedly critical condition, as the aftermath of a tremendous explosion at the coking mill of U. S. Steel Corp.'s plant in nearby Clairton.

Leo Scott, 37, a crane operator of nearby Bethel Borough, was killed in the blast yesterday. At least 23 persons were injured.

A U. S. Steel spokesman said the blast apparently occurred when the derrick of a crane driven by Scott broke loose and crashed into a 30-inch coking gas pipeline running along the outer side of a coke conversion plant.

The blast set fire to the coking mill, demolished the crane, shattered windows in an adjacent ammonia still and snapped a 20-inch elevated water line. Firemen brought the blaze under control within an hour.

No estimate of damage was made immediately. The plant is located on the Monongahela River about 15 miles south of Pittsburgh.

Several U. S. Steel rolling mills in the area suffered temporary loss of coking gas due to the blast. They resumed operations a short time later by switching to natural gas.

Operations in the coking mill were resumed last night on a limited scale. Other operations were back in full production.

Scott was employed by the Wilputte Coke Oven Division of Allied Chemical & Dye Co. The firm was rebuilding the coke ovens and installing new pipe.

$4,000 BLAZE AT CALEDONIA

Damage estimated at between $4,000 and $5,000 was caused to cabins at the Caledonia Manor, along the Lincoln Highway, by a fire that spread from burning refuse Monday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock.

Fayetteville and Cashtown firemen succeeded in confining the blaze to the flooring and one wall of the cabin most severely damaged and prevented the fire from spreading through another cabin when flaming electrical wiring fell on the roof.

Flames spread into the brush near the cabins unseen by the owner, Harold Beam, according to Fayetteville Fire Chief Richard Cramer. Mr. Beam was burning refuse in a partially isolated spot a short distance from the cabins.

Spreading underneath one of the cabins, the fire ate into the flooring and burned to the rear wall before being checked. Several pieces of new furniture in the cabin were damaged by smoke and water, Mr. Cramer said. The cabin, recently repaired and painted, was unoccupied.

"MY ISLAND"

There's an island that I go to . . . when my heart is full of care . . . an isolated spot on earth . . . where skies are always fair . . . just a small secluded dream isle . . . where I gain real peace of mind . . . tranquil spot where joys are endless . . . and the blues are hard to find . . . I enjoy my special island . . . with its grass and leaning trees . . . an I feel a deep contentment . . . as I touch the incensed breeze . . . no one else knows of my island . . . it's a secret all my own . . . free of heartache and of worry . . . in a sweet and temperate zone . . . moonlit waters bathed in starlight . . . days and nights beyond compare . . . and a million unseen pleasures . . . that are mine alone to share . . . if you long to find an island . . . you don't need a map or chart . . . for a place just like my island . . . is within your deepest heart.

Shoplifter Used Bloomers For Loot

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Austin Ashton Jr., 37, was taken into court on a shoplifting charge. There his topcoat was flipped open, revealing a pair of spacious pink bloomers strapped around him.

Two store officials testified that Ashton was poking two suits (men's, price $70 apiece) into the bloomers when he was spotted. The magistrate held him on $5,000 bail for court action.

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The threat of a scheduled strike today by some 8,000 building workers in the Philadelphia metropolitan area was ended by an agreement late last night.

Commissioner John R. Murray of the Federal Mediation Service announced that the building contractors and the carpenters union had come to terms. Murray said the agreement will be submitted to the membership of the carpenters union at a later date for ratification.

Murray said the terms were reached after a 17-hour negotiating session.

The Mt. St. Mary's College baseball team swept both ends of a doubleheader with Towson State Teachers College at Emmitsburg Tuesday afternoon, copping the first game 9-5 and the nightcap 8-6.

A trio of three-run innings in the opener highlighted the first victory as the Mountaineers pounded out 13 safeties. Jack Sullivan batted in five runs on a homerun and a pair of singles. Joe Starke hurled the route for the Mount and gave up only five hits while fanning seven.

Tony Nardone tossed the first five innings of the nightcap to gain the victory. Jerry Spahn finishing. Bill Hessler smashed out three hits to spark the Mountaineers.

This afternoon the Mount, now 6-5, meets American U. at Washington, D. C.

Schenectady centerfielder Jim Davis cracked open the Eastern League game at Springfield last night with a three-run eighth-inning homer that broke up a tight pitching duel, killed the Springfield Giants' one-run lead and over the league's front-runners, and put Schenectady ahead. The Blue Jays won 6-3.

In other games, Binghamton stunned Reading 8-1 and Albany snapped a three-game losing streak by downing Syracuse 8-2.

GENE FULLMER IS FAVORED IN BOUT TONIGHT

CHICAGO (P)—Middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, a bulldozing battler of 25, is favored to bash artistic but ancient Sugar Ray Robinson into the ring graveyard tonight in a title rematch at Chicago Stadium.

The 36-year-old Robinson, a 2-1 underdog, seemingly has only one chance to capture the 160-pound crown for the fourth time. That's by an early knockout of the durable Fullmer, who dethroned Sugar Ray at New York Jan. 2 with barroom brawl tactics.

Robinson has said he may retire if he loses to Fullmer again. Well, he might, after fighting—more, or less—on borrowed time since a pathetic showing in this same Chicago Stadium ring Jan. 19, 1955.

Beaten By Jones
It was then Robinson, trying a comeback after a "retirement," was cut to ribbons by a journeyman middleweight, Ralph (Tiger) Jones.

But he stubbornly summoned all the class of his waning years. He won four more trial bouts. Then he knocked out Bobo Olson Dec. 9, 1955, at the Chicago Stadium, to recapture the middleweight title.

A washed-out Olson challenged Robinson in a rematch at Los Angeles May 18, 1956. Sugar Ray flattened Olson in four rounds. After on fight, Nov. 10, 1956, when he won a 10-round decision over one Bob Proviola, Robinson defended against Fullmer last Jan. 2.

Relentless Attack
In that New York fight, Fullmer pressed a relentless attack which dropped the Sugar Man in the seventh round and had Robinson hanging on helplessly most of the time.

There were cries from the Robinson camp that Fullmer rabbit-punched his way to the title. Handicappers of the Utah scrapper snarled in rebuttal that Robinson was holding most of the fight.

ABC will broadcast and telecast at 9 p.m. EST.

LOUISIANA ASKS FOR CERTIFICATE FROM R. DUPAS

NEW ORLEANS (P)—Lightweight contender Ralph Dupas, who successfully battled recent allegations that he is a Negro, drew an order from the State Athletic Commission today to produce a birth certificate before fighting again in Louisiana.

A letter signed by Asst. Commission Secretary Michael Cusimano requested the certificate "in view of the enormous amount of confusion caused by the disagreement" between Dupas and the Bureau of Vital Statistics.

Mrs. Lucretia Gravolet of Plaquemines Parish, La., and an official from the city's Bureau of Vital Statistics appeared before the commission early last month and contended the 21-year-old New Orleans stylist, ranked fourth in the lightweight division, was a Negro.

Promise Appropriate Steps
The allegations came on the eve of a match between Dupas and Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., a white welterweight ranked fifth in his class.

A Louisiana law prohibits bouts between white and Negro fighters. The commission ruled it could find nothing that would ban the fight, and it went on as scheduled April 8 with Dupas winning a 10-round decision.

Sam Monk Zelden, attorney for Dupas, said neither had received a copy of Cusimano's letter. Zelden told The Associated Press in an interview that "all concerned realize the import and ramifications involved. We will have to study it before taking any action, but be assured that we will take appropriate steps."

A one-hit pitching performance by Laverne Shultz featured the 17-0 victory registered by the unbeaten Biglerville High School baseball over invading East Berlin in a county league game Tuesday afternoon.

The lone East Berlin hit came in the first frame when Mummert bounced a single off Jimmy Smallwood's glove. Mummert was out on a theft attempt. C. Myers walked and Shaffer was safe on an error but from that point on no East Berlin batter reached base. Shultz fanned eight. Byers, Smallwood and Dick Hartzell each hammered three hits for the winners while Constable homered in the sixth with one on. The loss virtually eliminated East Berlin from the race.

Fourth Shutout
Boiling Springs kept its perfect record intact by blanking York Springs 6-0 on the Bubbler's field. It was the fourth straight league win for the Bubbler whose superb hurling has not yielded a run this season in league competition. Bob Murphy gave up but two hits, a double by George Williams and single by Harold Griffie. Williams, starter for York Springs, was hit by a line drive in the right foot in the fifth inning and was forced to retire. Boiling Springs scored three times in the opening inning as the result of successive triples by Wise, Clark and Bream.

Littlestown scored a pair of runs in the last of the sixth inning to break a 5-5 deadlock and defeat Big Spring 7-5. The Thunderbolts pushed over five runs in the fourth, a double by Eddie Knipple driving over three. Ken Koontz smashed out two hits for the Bolts to keep his season batting average well over .300. Big Spring took advantage of two Littlestown errors in the fifth when Wagner scored to knot the count at 5-5.

A five-run rally by Fairfield in the top of the fifth inning fell one run short as New Oxford took a 6-5 verdict. New Oxford jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning when Jan Sponseller doubled home two runs. The Colonials collected but three hits while Fairfield rapped six. A trio of errors and three hits produced Fairfield's runs in the seventh and the tying run was left on third when the final out came via a strikeout.

Warriors Host Chambersburg In Key SP Contest
A scrap for first place in the South Penn Scholastic Baseball League will be staged here Thursday afternoon at 3:30 when the Gettysburg High Warriors entertain the league-leading Chambersburg Trojans.

Chambersburg (3-1) holds a half-game lead over Gettysburg and Shippensburg who are deadlocked for second place with 2-1 records.

The Warriors blanked Waynesboro 2-0 Monday for their second league win when Kenny Cullison hurled a no-hitter. With Cullison out of the mound picture, Tom Kitzmiller, big right-hander, is expected to toe the slab for the Warriors.

Hanover plays at Shippensburg in the other league contest.

Lehigh Nine To Meet Bullets Here Thursday

Having halted their losing ways last Saturday by drubbing Dickinson, the Gettysburg College baseball team goes after its second straight win here Thursday at 3 when the Lehigh Engineers will be met.

Coach "Hen" Bream will probably use Bucky Walters, sophomore, against Lehigh.

The Bullets were a much improved outfit against Dickinson and the squad is confident of bettering its current 2-6-1 record.

Following Thursday's game the Bullets meet Albright at Reading Saturday.

Big Guns And Little Fellows Will Remember April 30 Tilts In Majors; Bolling Beats Yanks

April's closing day was a big one for some of baseball's biggest guns but a couple of little lowtizers—Don Zimmer and Frank Bolling—will always remember it as their day.

April 30 was a day when Ted Williams blasted his 422nd home run, Stan Musial smashed his 354

SUPPORTS IKE'S MOVE TO KEEP STATE BUDGET

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's effort to restore most of the 47 million dollars chopped by the House out of the State Department's budget won the support Tuesday of Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.).

Mansfield, assistant Democratic leader, said he will back an effort to give the State Department the full 227 million dollars Eisenhower originally requested.

The administration appeared to be bucking a fresh congressional economy upsurge that found Republican leaders joining Democratic colleagues in demands for deep cuts in Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending budget.

Sen. Dirksen of Illinois, assistant Republican leader, backed up the call yesterday by Sen. Knowland of California, GOP floor chief, for "substantial" spending reductions.

Dirksen said in an interview "the burden of the mail" consists of support for spending cuts. He said that as a member of the Appropriations Committee he is going beyond some House reductions to propose some of his own.

Mansfield said he thinks Eisenhower's over-all budget can be cut three billion dollars. But he said he is opposed to making the State Department a principal target for economy.

He said, however, he will support large-scale reductions in funds for the U. S. Information Agency and in Eisenhower's proposed $4,400,000,000 outlay for foreign aid.

May Hike Judges' Retirement Pay

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania judges could receive in retirement nearly 75 per cent of their highest pay under a bill in the House today with Senate approval. Present law makes judges of the Supreme, Superior and County courts eligible for up to 50 per cent of their highest salary in annual retirement payments after 20 years service.

The proposed change, passed 47-1 in the Senate last night, also would increase by 100 per cent the retirement fund payments to be paid by judges in their first 10 years on the bench. Contributions would be one and one-half the present rate in the next 10 years.

U. S. SCOFFS AT LONDON YARN OF QUEEN'S VISIT

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The United States would be delighted to receive Queen Elizabeth II at any time and a London report that the queen would visit the Middle East.

The special force, made up of contingents from countries with no direct interest in the Middle East crisis, was sent into Egypt after the British-French-Israeli invasion.

The proposed financial arrangements were disclosed on Monday with publication of closed-door testimony taken April 2 by a House Appropriations subcommittee. They are included in a special bill providing funds for agencies which overspent their appropriations.

Other testimony released showed that closing of the Suez Canal cost the U. S. Navy an extra eight million dollars for fuel transportation.

The State Department reported it had spent about a million dollars evacuating 3,213 persons from the afflicted area. Some of these costs, but not all, will be repaid, witnesses said.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Youthful King Hussein of Jordan has badly jolted Egyptian President Nasser's dream of a solid Arab world, with Nasser as leader. But Nasser had some strikes on him before that, and it's no wonder.

The Arab countries have a long history of jealousies and conflicts, although, going back to the 19th century, when the Turks still bossed them, Arabs talked of the possibility of an independent Arab state some day.

The closest they could come to it was in 1945 when seven Arab nations — Egypt, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Yemen — formed the Arab League for joint action in all matters of common concern.

Hostile To Jews
The motivating force for the league was the imminent creation of the new state of Israel. Now these Arab countries have in common religion, language, and hostility to the Jews. There also are strong feelings of nationalism and

Her Majesty's visit has been postponed as described at President Eisenhower's headquarters here as "completely wrong."

The London Daily Sketch said Tuesday the President has yet to invite the Queen to visit this country.

Mrs. Eisenhower's health was advanced as a possible reason for the delay.

"My best pipelines into the White House say the trip definitely is postponed until next spring," wrote the Sketch's Washington correspondent Richard Greenough.

"Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, already a most nervous woman, is a bit alarmed at the prospect of a full-scale state visit. She has not been well for some time."

"She has a heart murmur and has been told to avoid strain and exhaustion."

In terms Greenough's story completely wrong, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said.

"There is a complete understanding on this matter between the United Kingdom and the United States governments."

"As I have said before, and as the President himself has said, our government would be delighted to receive Her Majesty in this country at any time."

Referring to Greenough's mention of Mrs. Eisenhower's health, Hagerty said: "I am not even going to dignify that by commenting on it."

anticolonialism, both a direct result of the long hold on them by Turks, British and French.

After the war against Israel, the Arab League members even signed a collective defense pact. That was in 1950. It was the high-water mark of their unity.

Their defense agreement was virtually canceled out five years later. First Iraq joined the Baghdad defense pact against Russia along with Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Great Britain, with American backing. Then Egypt and Syria the same year made a defense agreement between themselves.

By that time — 1955 — Nasser was in the saddle in Egypt, preaching Pan-Arabism, playing on the Arabs' anticolonial distrust of the West, their hatred of the Jews. By sheer talk and drive he pushed himself into a leadership position.

And he made himself a rallying point for all Arab nationalists in 1956 when, angered because this country refused him money to build a dam, he seized the Suez Canal. After that to make concessions was to lose face and leadership.

He needed big support to help him weather the storm of his opposition to the West. Naturally, he turned to anti-Western Russia. It became convenient then for the pro-Communists in the Middle East to work together, or at least toward some of the same ends.

But four of the seven Arab League members are kingdoms — Iraq, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and Yemen, which is too small to have significance. Two, Syria and Lebanon, are republics. Egypt calls itself a republic.

The longer Nasser defied the West and the closer he tried to pull the Arab world toward reliance on Russia, the more unhealthy it became for the kings of Iraq, Jordan and Saudi Arabia. There is no future for them with communism.

Therefore, it would be convenient for Nasser — particularly with his dreams of dominating the Arab world — if the kings were gone. It's no accident King Hussein blamed Egypt and communism for the riots in Jordan against his government this month.

The kings are not stupid either. If Hussein were dethroned now, the kings of Iraq and Saudi Arabia could tremble for themselves in the future. It was natural that they rallied to Hussein's help.

COMET VISIBLE MONDAY NIGHT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If you thought you saw a comet in the sky over Pennsylvania Monday night the chances are you are right.

Astronomers say the Arend-Roland comet was visible to the eye as it streaked across clear skies last night.

Whether you saw it or not depends on what part of the sky you were looking at.

Arthur Draper, of the Buhl Planetarium, Pittsburgh, said it was to the northwest "and a little more to the north than to the west."

He said it was on a line between a bright star called "Capella" and a W-shaped group of five stars called Cassiopeia.

"It is headed toward the Big Dipper," he said. "About July the fourth it will be very close to the Big Dipper."

Draper said he could not estimate the comet's length, speed or distance from earth.

"To the naked eye it appeared to be a short streak of light," he said. "It was quite easily visible to the naked eye."

Dr. James B. Schroyer, a science professor at Waynesburg College, said the comet should be visible for several hours on clear evenings.

Draper said the best time to view it is between 9 and 10 p.m. Persons in Oil City, Greene County, Williamsport and Harrisburg reported seeing it.

Ted Kroll, golf's leading money winner of 1956, won one tournament in 1955, but finished second in two others and twice finished third.

HOW PLYMOUTH'S BIG ECONOMY WIN AFFECTS YOU!

If you're an average driver, you wouldn't have had a chance in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. It takes seasoned professionals to win in this kind of competition.

Every car of every make entered in the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run was a new 1957 stock model. Every car was carefully tuned for the Run and the cars were piloted by real experts in this exacting kind of driving. Naturally, the mileage they got is higher than the figure you can expect.

The way this race—and all previous Mobilgas Economy Runs—was judged is another area that should interest you:

Cars of different weights and engine displacements cannot compete on an equal basis. Such a competition would produce misleading miles-per-gallon figures. If miles-per-gallon were the only consideration, a motor bike could run away with first place. Obviously, other factors must be considered.

In order to give all cars a fair chance, the engineers used ton-miles-per-gallon as their yardstick—and as a basis for the official Mobilgas Economy Run prizes. This establishes a definite relationship between gasoline consumed, distance traveled, and weight carried. It is the only measure of gasoline economy that has any real significance to the engineers—or to you as an average motorist.

Now look at the results of the Run with the above thoughts in mind: Plymouth swept its field—First Place winner in "Class A," the division that included all the well-known low-price cars. As certified by the United States Automobile Club, Plymouth's official ton-miles-per-gallon led the entire "Class A" field.

Bear in mind, too, that Plymouth's winning mark was set using a V-8 engine with TorqueFlite automatic transmission. Several of the losing cars in Plymouth's division used 6-cylinder engines—supposedly more economical. But Plymouth beat every car in sight, 6's and V-8's alike.

But here's what Plymouth's victory does mean to you: The Plymouth you buy at your Plymouth dealer's is the same, engine for engine, part for part, as the Plymouth that won the Mobilgas Economy Run.

The superior engineering that enabled Plymouth to run away with first place is built into every Plymouth. And that means you can expect economy that will save you real money in ordinary driving.

So before you invest a dime in any automobile, it's to your advantage to compare all three low-price cars. Compare them for economy... for beauty... for riding and handling ease... for performance. Then make your decision.

Only Plymouth dares to make so bold a challenge, because only Plymouth, of the low-price 3, has so many three-years-ahead features, yet leads its field in day-in, day-out economy.

Prove it to yourself. Your Plymouth dealer will be glad to give you a guest drive at your convenience.

The program is being sponsored by the Littlestown Borough School Board, and the daily attendance of 60 or more children must be maintained or the supervised recreation will be discontinued.

Plan To Remodel
Members of the Kingsdale Fire Company decided to remodel the basement of the engine house at the meeting held on Monday evening in the engine house, along the Littlestown - Taneytown Rd. A recreation room and meeting room will be made in the basement.

President Henry Barnes presided and heard a report from the secretary, Francis Gerrick. The president appointed John Mort and Edgar A. Wolfe to serve as a committee to plan a more efficient fire call system, and a report on their plans at the May session. It was decided to fertilize the company pond.

The firemen accepted the following dates for parade participation: May 31, at the Union Bridge Firemen's parade; June 3, New Windsor;

June 7, Friendship Company, in Pennville; June 13, Taneytown. The firement will take one of the company's trucks to each of the parades. Bills ordered paid totaled $187.09 and receipts of the month were $32.50. Bernard Reinman and Wayne Reinman were appointed to serve as the social committee for the next quarter. Following the business period, refreshments were served by Harry Hess and Luther Hess. The company will meet again on Monday, May 27.

Rotarians Meet

WEST COOL TO RED PROPOSALS ON DISARMING

By HERB ALTSCHULL
BONN, Germany (AP)—Foreign ministers of the 15 Atlantic Allies, assembling here today for a three-day meeting, were expected to recommend intensive negotiations on Russia's latest disarmament proposals.

Initial Western reaction was generally cool to the Soviet proposals, announced last night by Moscow radio.

Part of the Soviet plan provided for limited acceptance of President Eisenhower's two-year-old "open skies" scheme for disarmament inspectors to photograph American and Russian territory from the air as a check against preparations for war.

Would Suspend Tests
Moscow radio said Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin told the U. N. Disarmament subcommittee in London his government was ready to open about 2 1/2 million square miles of its territory in Europe and eastern Siberia to aerial inspection if the United States would open the skies over almost the same amount of territory in Alaska and the western United States.

Zorin coupled this with proposals for an immediate suspension of nuclear weapon tests and Russian-American-British renunciation of the use of nuclear weapons.

He also repeated previous proposals to reduce armed forces of the United States, the Soviet Union and Red China to 2 1/2 million men each and of Britain and France to 750,000 each as a prelude to further cuts.

Most Of West U.S.
Although Zorin did not set forth the geographical limits of the proposed American area to be inspected, the total specified minus Alaska would take in most of the land west of the Mississippi River. This includes the great industrial regions of the West Coast, key naval and air bases, missile testing sites and power installations.

In return, the Russians offered to open up "a vast zone not only in Europe but also in the Far East, including the territory of eastern Siberia and the Maritime Territory, Kamchatka and Sakhalin." The key question still to be answered was how far into European Russia—location of the chief Soviet might—the inspectors could penetrate.

No Immediate Comment
The West knows virtually nothing about what is in eastern Siberia.

$14 BILLION IN MILITARY AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said Tuesday the United States delivered 570 million dollars worth of military goods to free world nations in the last half of 1956.

In a semiannual report to Congress on the mutual security program, Eisenhower said those shipments brought to nearly $14,800,000,000 the value of military aid to friendly nations since the program was started in 1950.

Deliveries in the last half of the year were considerably less than the $1,900,000,000 shipped in the first six months of 1956. The main reason, the report said, was a decline "in the quantity of off-the-shelf items available for ready delivery."

Of the two billion dollars earmarked for military assistance appropriated for the current fiscal year, the report said, "programs totaling 1 1/2 billion dollars were under implementation by the end of December 1956."

105-Year-Old Woman Dies In New Jersey

BRICK TOWNSHIP, N. J. (AP)—Mrs. Mary Catherine Frazee, a descendant of Revolutionary period financier Robert Morris, died here on Monday in the Ocean County farm home she had occupied since her marriage in 1870. She would have been 106 May 30.

Mrs. Frazee was a great-great granddaughter of Morris, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

She is survived by a daughter, two grandchildren, including Norris Cooper of Lansdale, Pa., and a great grandson, James H. Cooper of Lansdale. Her husband, James H. Frazee, died in 1925.

DECIDE GIRARD COLLEGE MADE BIG MISTAKE

By PAUL M. YOST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, finding "state action" was involved, has decided Girard College in Philadelphia violated the constitution by admitting only "poor white orphan boys."

That racial restriction on admission was set by Stephen Girard, who died in 1831 and willed two million dollars to establish the college.

But the Supreme Court said Monday the institution was administered by the Board of Directors of City Trusts of Philadelphia, which was created by the Pennsylvania Legislature.

Agency of State
"The board which operates Girard College is an agency of the state of Pennsylvania," the high tribunal said in a unanimous unsigned opinion.

"Therefore, its refusal to admit (two Negro boys) to the college because they were Negroes was discrimination by the state. Such discrimination is forbidden by the 14th amendment."

The Supreme Court cited its 1954 decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools and sent the Girard College case back to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court for further proceedings.

In Philadelphia, D. Newbold Cooper, Girard president, said he is prepared to admit Negro boys if the Board of City Trusts directs him to. He declined to comment on the Supreme Court decision.

The board's solicitor, Joseph P.

Politicians Curb Business In Haiti

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Political rivals, who have brought local trade to a virtual standstill and forced the Bank of Haiti to close, kept this rulerless country in turmoil Tuesday. The army chief of staff, Gen. Leon Cantave, is the only remaining semblance of ruling authority.

The bank closed on Monday as commercial interests backed a presidential candidate Louis Dejeu threatened a run on the institution.

Dejeu followers also continued their strike, shutting the main stores in Port au Prince.

Gaffney, also said in Philadelphia a state court ruling was needed so that the board will know "how to act."

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court, rejecting an attack on Girard's will by the two Negro boys, had said "it is one of our most fundamental legal principles that an individual has the right to dispose of his own property by gift or will as he sees fit."

For 108 years the college had admitted only white boys. It now has an enrollment of 1,051. The two million dollar estate had grown by 1955 to 98 million dollars, with an annual income of $2,211,000.

Attorneys for the two Negro boys and counsel for Pennsylvania and the city of Philadelphia joined in appealing to the high tribunal to overturn the state court decision.

Although the wealthiest man in the Tenth Century, King Solomon didn't have a penny to his name. Coins had not yet appeared in Palestine, says the National Geographic Society.

MARINES WITH 6TH FLEET GET BEIRUT LIBERTY

By WATSON SIMS
ABOARD USS MOUNT MCKINLEY, in Beirut (AP)—Marines of the U. S. 6th Fleet went ashore in the Middle East Tuesday, wearing tropical dress uniforms rather than battle fatigues and grins instead of grenades.

While 50 other ships of the fleet conducted air defense maneuvers, six transports with 1,800 men of the 6th Marines' 2nd Battalion moved into Beirut harbor for a liberty party.

A two-pounder gun on this flagship of the amphibious force boomed separate 21-gun salutes for Lebanon and President Camille Chamoun as the force entered the harbor at 9 a.m.

Prepared To Shoot
"We were prepared to shoot our way into a trouble spot if necessary," said Cmdr. John Jones of Chatsworth, Ga., executive officer of the Mount McKinley.

"It is good to be using salute guns to do the shooting."

As this correspondent flew over in a Navy transport plane on Monday, the powerful 6th Fleet 7,500 feet below was four lines of slim gray shapes drawing white stripes across the brilliant Mediterranean blue.

The supercarrier Forrestal, center of the fleet, steamed briskly into the wind as planes landed on its flight decks.

To the Forrestal's right were the heavy cruisers Des Moines and Salem, the latter the flagship of Vice Adm. Charles (Cat) Ahead, behind and to the sides

Hammarskjold, Pope Confer 40 Minutes

VATICAN CITY (AP)—U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and Pope Pius XII talked for 40 minutes in the Pope's private study Tuesday.

There was no immediate disclosure as to what subjects were discussed. Hammarskjold arrived in Rome by plane from New York on Monday, and had talks Monday night with President Giovanni Gronchi and Premier Antonio Segni, reportedly on the Middle East situation.

He rode nine destroyers in two lines. Further wispy stripes told of the presence of other warships, presumably the battleship Wisconsin, the carrier Lake Champlain and a dozen lesser vessels.

The great force was barely 100 miles off Beirut, and only scant minutes by jet plane from Jordan. Aboard our plane were nine officers being reunited with their ships, which put to sea on Thursday after sudden midnight orders from Washington.
